

on once more. We drew the attention of the others to this phenomenon. Most thought it might be the glare coming from a farm vehicle, even though it was after 11.30pm. Last war soldier Reg Scrine, his daughter Susanne, and a handful of watchers besides myself, kept watch and observed an uncanny happening that must have been far removed from a lighted tractor or trailer...

The pyramid of light emanated from the sky. It was like a searchlight turning its brilliant beam downward! Much, much brighter and more intense at its point of origin than its weaker cone of spreading light below. It reminded us of a luminous triangle of bright yellow light, which we at first mistook for an Army flare, that hung resolutely in the eastern sky one night above the skyline to the left of the farm across the fields. Not a shiver or a waver: it was etched starkly and vividly against the dark backcloth of the heavens for several minutes, large to the eye as an exotic foreign triangular stamp... One aeroform, or three merging into one? Who Knows?

Thousands of visitors to Warminster over the past ten years, entirely satisfied that they have seen for themselves the strange aerobatic manoeuvres of definite UFOs or weird manifestations of light energies from local hilltops under reasonably good sky and weather conditions, testify that the shining spheroids are capable of blistering speeds in flight. However they do mystify!

Mystery light 'a UFO claim' - undated news clipping.

-o-o-o-o-o-o-o-o-o-o-o-

Police were alerted when people saw "an intense white light" speeding through the skies. The light was spotted at about 9.15 last night by Mr Peter Hughes, caretaker of Mons Hill School, Dudley. His wife Verity and two students at the school evening institute also saw the light.

Mr Hughes, who called police, today insisted the light was not an aeroplane or a helicopter. He believes it was an Unidentified Flying Object. He said it shot at great speed at about 2,000 feet, stopped dead, performed intricate manoeuvres and then faded away. He said: "It was absolutely incredible. It was a very clear night and there was no noise at all. The light was so intense you couldn't distinguish a shape. It went much faster than an aircraft could and then stopped dead.

"It dropped, hovered and jiggled about several times and then it was as though someone dimmed it out".

A Birmingham Airport official said there were no aircraft flying in the area but military helicopters had been in operation in the Midlands. However, a senior Royal Air Force officer at Shawbury said it was unlikely that any helicopters would have been in the Dudley area.

Forthcoming NEW SERIES

THE TIMES OF MAN

Starting in issue No. 6 a new series which will put forward some answers to the questions you have never dared to ask. A panorama of the imponderable. With startling simplicity 'The Times of Man' will range deeply into the complex involvement of man and the stars. An ever changing wheel of events which have changed the course of history and even to this day shape the destiny of this planet. A compelling story told from an outside point of view. What hidden factors lie behind the march of time. All this will be examined in the NEW SERIES commencing in issue No. 6.

"Gifts of Unknown Things" - Book Review.

-o-o-o-o-o-o-o-o-o-o-

By the author of "Supernature", Lyall Watson, published by Hodder & Stoughton Ltd and Book Club Associates, hardback, 1976

A documentary story set in the Indonesian Archipelago full of delicate descriptions, told with feeling, involvement and wonder. A land where para-normal knows no boundary with everyday life. Where some of the old ways maintain in a culture passed from generation to generation by reason of cause and effect they know not how, but working with unquestionable power and perception.

Facts combined with beauty, of gods and demons, children older in time than men; drama, sadness, and joy. A book to be felt rather than read, totally fascinating.

For readers of Lyall Watsons other books, an absolute must, his best so far, more than just a book, an experience - gifts of unknown things indeed.

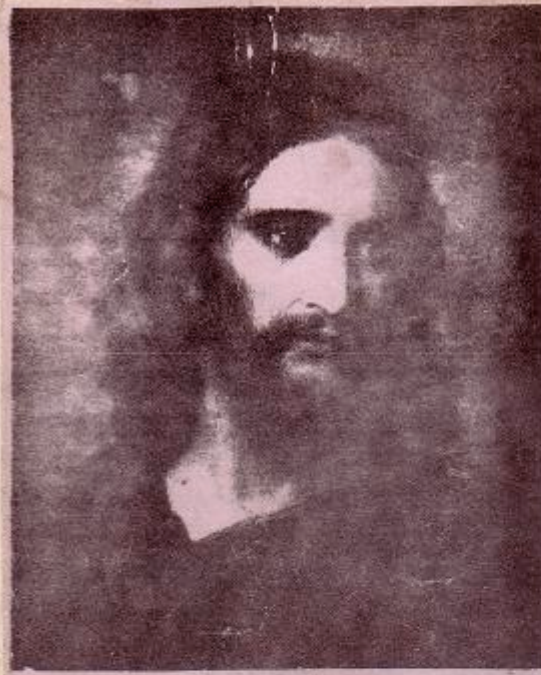

STAR HOUSE
78 PORTWAY
WARMINSTER.

All who come to Warminster are welcome to visit or to stay at the Fountain Centre, but please book early!

Open all the year round and near favourite hills
for sky-watch sessions.

Warminster still has 'lively' skies and UFOs are frequently seen... good luck!

Left. An Artist impression of Jesus Christ, said to be an inspired portrait of the Master on which Christianity commenced.

Below. An Artist impression of one of the 'visitors' who came to Arthur Shuttlewood during his many experiences over the years.

Although the suggestion is not made that this person was the same, there are certain characteristics in common in both portraits.

Discussion of these points will arise in 'The Times of Man', starting in issue NO.6.

I Peter 5 .4

And when the chief Shepherd shall appear, ye shall receive a crown of glory that fadeth not away.
Likewise, ye younger, submit yourselves unto the elder.
Yea, all of you be subject one to another, and be clothed with humility: for God resisteth the proud, and giveth grace to the humble.
