We recently received the Swift catalogue of there optical instruments. From experience we would give there products the highest recommendation. Mr. Wilkinson will also advise of your nearest stockist. Once again we must offer our highest possible recomendation. Below and on the following page are some of there products.

Swift Astronomical Telescopes

(The Best seen and reported) on.

Two feature packed refracting telescops for the serious amateur astronomer. Incorporating very high quality optics including triplet objective lenses and excellently manufactured mechanics. These telescopes allow for especially good celestial photography. The extremely close tolerance and accurate mechanism of the polar axis can be fitted to a smoothly operating electric motor drive.

Swift TS 65mm - Model D
Focal Length 1000mm
Objective lens 65mm aperture
Magnification x40 x80 x 143.

Model TS 65mm - Model P
Focal Length 500mm
Objective Lens 65mm aperture
Magnification x 28 x 71.

As promised in the last magazine, we are proud to be able to give a full report of the Swift Spotting Scopes. A must for any Ufologist who is after the elusive photograph.

Target and Viewing

Aim, focus, zoom. Fingertip controls for the 13 lens optical system facilitate crisp focus and infinitely variable magnification from 15 x to 60 x on the Telemaster and 25 x to 50x on the Junior Telemaster. Threaded to fit table top tripod which is available and will also fit standard tripods. Fast easy to focus a must for trying to catch the extremely fast actions of UFO's at night. Below are the details.

COMMENT BY WILLIAM SHATNER, BEST KNOWN AS CAPTAIN KIRK OF THE U.S.S. ENTERPRISE IN 'STAR TREK'.

'I believe in UFO's. The time is long past when the Air Force or the Scientists or the Government can say that what people are seeing in the sky is nothing but hot-air balloons or the planet Venus. That kind of double talk will not wash any longer. There has been too much evidence over the years that UFO's exist.'

They have been seen by too many people in too many places for anyone to doubt that they are out there. Although I believe in UFO's, I must admit that I fail completely to understand what their purpose is. I just can't find the answers to the intriguing questions that they raise. For example, if these vehicles are piloted by intelligent beings from outer space, then why have they made no effort to contact heads of government or other responsible agencies?. They have kidnapped farmers in a Georgia swamp and a couple driving a car, but have made no contact with the people on Earth on a large scale. Perhaps soon they'll make their purpose known. Until then I've got to leave it up to Enquirer readers to speculate just where these objects come from and what they are doing here'.

During the making of Star Trek, I spoke to many science fiction writers and technical advisors to the show. Almost to the man they were absolutely convinced that UFO's existed. These were all well informed and intelligent people. They were of the opinion that UFO's originate in outer space and carried intelligent life forms. One writer claimed he had seen a UFO. He said it was a huge cigar shaped object very high in the sky. I had no reason to disbelieve him. Too many trustworthy well qualified people have seen similar objects for them all to be lying.

'I have never seen a UFO Personally, but the evidence in their favour is so overwhelming that there is not the slightest doubt in my mind that they exist'.

The following newspaper clipping was sent to us from a reader in Columbus, Ohio, kind thanks to John for this and the many others which are included in the magazine.

HYNEK ASKS U.S. UNIT TO STUDY UFO's

EVANSTON, Ill. (UPI) Dr. J. Allen Hynek, chairman of Northwestern University's astronomy department, called Tuesday for establishment of a Government agency to study unidentified flying objects.

"The sightings of UFO's has been going on a long time," Hynek said "And it is time that we study these sightings scientifically."

Hynek, who interviewed two Pascagoula, Miss., men who reported being placed aboard a blue-fish-shaped craft by three weird creatures, believes the sightings are more than fantasy.

"Where they are coming from and why they were here is a matter of conjecture", he said. "But the fact that they were here on this planet is beyond a reasonable doubt".

Hynek asked that information on sightings be forwarded to him in care of the astronomy department Northwestern University, Evanston, Ill., and that it include the date, time and place of the sighting and a description.

THE ULTIMATE DIMENSION

We are all accustomed to the three material dimensions, for our every move in this physical life is controlled by them. The fourth dimension is the psychic, and to be powered to use it to the full makes the three look like the world to an astronaut, who, from outer space, looks back on the earth and sees it small and insignificant, compared with the rest of the picture before his eyes.

Any one of these dimensions cannot be traversed without passing along the whole length or distance in question. It is not possible to leap from one end to the other without having used the distance between, even if it were at the speed of light.

Knowing this, it is not difficult to see that every rung of the ladder is used at all times, thus, saving energy and the placing of unnecessary strain on the following rung.

Nature is not a jumpy movement but a smooth calculated operation in every respect, and to study the parts of nature that have not consciousness, such as vegetation, it shows to be obvious that the path of nature is a steady step-by-step process that cannot be slowed or rushed, regardless of the efforts of man's consciousness.

All particles of nature are dependant on each other, therefore, they must be joined together in some way, but as nature does not have joints along the line, it must be a gradual change from one stage to another forming the great cycle of the ULTIMATE DIMENSION.

This dimension is as immeasurable as infinity, and although the material can be said to be at one end, and God at the other, the overall dimension is immeasurable. The higher intelligences along the line of the lower planes may not know precisely the extent of, overall, or if there is an extent. Only God, the first mathematician, could know how many times the great cycle continues to cycle.

Being aware of this perpetual process, and the passage through each of the lower cycles being smooth and continuous, and through every plane equally as smooth, then, the invisible wall between the planes - that consciousness imagines there to be - would be replaced by a corridor of untold beauty by the enlightened consciousness.

There is no limit to the height that the dual personality, the Divine personality, the inner God, is able to rise to, for it is as unlimited as the Great Dimension. It is only the consciousness of man that holds it back from rising to its ultimate height, and patiently, it waits for the consciousness to rise up hand-in-hand with it, to the level that God so desires.

The moment man realizes that the wall barrier does not exist, is the moment he has attuned himself with the Divine truth. From this glorious point onwards the great climb begins.

Vision and realization takes on a dimension not experienced by man up to this point, and the panorama offers knowledge and wisdom, and above all, the strength to pass on to the less enlightened, the understanding of the unbroken chain, the process of God's natural laws.

The next step from the material world is our immediate Brothers, who are being in close harmony with our inner self - waiting in the same patient manner, for man's rise to that point of balance of the dual personalities, they so much desire, in order that bonded together, the Spiritual World and, indeed, the whole Galaxy, can once again be free of dangers that vibrate on the threshold of our Solar System.

Sufficient Faith in himself, and faith in the Divine Power, and man can swiftly sweep aside the dangers that confront us all. The more there are gathered together, the more Powerful the Natural forces, to effect the harmonious and Divine balance that our Brothers seek for the benefit of every plane.

Our immediate Brothers are easy to reach by those who have reached the first attunement. The visions classed as miracles in the bible writings, are as much with man today as thousands of years ago. Those who have reached the first attunement, but do not realize the Truth of the ability of man, still call the visions, miracles, but to have the knowledge of natural laws, and the ability to operate them to the full as designed by God, (as our extra-terrestrial Brothers do, and even through man) Misery and sickness can be overcome and swept away.

What must be done to reach this close harmony with the psychic self?

Although it is as simple as nature is on the whole, man fails to achieve the Glorious results usually, because it entails so much effort. Not in the physical sense, it is mental effort that it demands at all times in order that the conscience is cleared and kept clear, and that, other than the daily routine of material living, the consciousness refrains from magnifying the negative things in life, and in its stead, magnifies the positively good things especially where other people are concerned.

It is so easy to worry about things that do not really matter, and to allow such things to cause delay to the progress of psychic enlightenment. To those who are worthy, but weak, give as big a hand as possible, and it is surprising how satisfying these little things are to the Soul. The smooth running of the sympathetic nervous system is a must, for personal health and happiness, the foundation for the great climb.

Each rung of the ladder, each step that is taken, must be studied and remembered. The ladder is round like a tread-mill, the climb is a psychic evolution.

The axle of the tread-mill is also rotating, but unlike the earth, gives no sign of movement until the glorious Spiritual arrival.

All seekers of the truth must be prepared at all times to be tested for patience, endurance, strength of faith, and sincerity, before our extra-terrestrial Brothers who are the nearest Godly Messengers to our Earth, can consider reaching out and contacting the ones, who are seeking them. They are always in contact through the Divine Mind, but to materialize in a more personal way, many surprising tests are necessary.

Man of this world has always had the truth hidden from him, because of this, he has always accepted that what cannot be negotiated with the five senses is not true, therefore, impossible. There are no limits to infinity or Eternity, therefore, there are no limits to nature in all its dimensions, so nothing can be swept aside as impossible.

To try and fail, does not mean it is impossible, one may find an act beyond ones capacity, but that does not mean another will fail.

It is for everyone to try to reach the higher point of balance, and that is what real living is all about. The astronauts have proved physically that space travel is not impossible, it is up to those who are of a higher psychic balance, to prove to the misinformed masses, the ULTIMATE DIMENSION and all its Glory, is a continual passage of discovery that is waiting to be ventured by everyone.

Step on each rung one by one, and each following rung will be found to be easier than the previous one.

As the first step is taken, it is only the first step in THIS life, in this material cycle. Each step taken will bring back the memories of that step in a previous life, for memories return with repetition.

Remember, because it is not visual does not mean it is not there, the blindness is only temporary, the vision soon comes to those who are worthy.

Think on these things carefully, know the truth within yourself, measure your strength well, build it up where necessary, put it to the test and tread the path that never ends.

UFO JAMS JETS ELECTRICAL SYSTEMS IN SUPERSONIC CHASE by John Cathcart.

The UFO split in two and a glowing section of it shot out at the Phantom jet fighter. "It's about 20 miles behind" the alarmed air force pilot radioed the tower. "It's following me! Oh!. Now..... The radio went dead. Stunned Air traffic controllers sat in disbelief as they watched the jet scream low over the control tower - the brilliant object now a rectangle atop the jet plane.

The bizarre incident was only part of the mysterious series of events that occurred last September when a UFO staged a spectacular aerial display in full view of airport tower personnel and baffled commanders of the Imperial Iranian Air Force. The UFO jammed communications on two Iranian fighter planes sent up to intercept it - and launched a smaller UFO to chase one plane away.

"Two jets were scrambled and they locked onto the target with radar but they recieved very strong jamming" said Deputy Commander-in-Chief of operations Lt. Gen. Abdullah Azarbarzan, who confirmed that the UFO manoeuvred for hours over Terhan, the capital of Iran. The intercept was further verified by the veteran air traffic controller, at Terhan's Mehrabad Airport, Hossain Pirouzi, who directed the fighter planes by radio and saw the object himself. And a second Iranian air force Gen. the senior in command at the time also saw the UFO for himself and gave the order to intercept, the controller revealed.

The sensational chain of events began at 10.30 PM. last September 18th, when calls began to come into the controller Pirouzi from excited citizens who had sighted a strange object in the sky. It seemed to be changing shape rapidly - one caller describe it as "Like a fan with four blades" another as "Something dividing into two and joining together again. After the fourth such call Pirouzi, controller at the airport for 13 years, went to an outdoor terrace and searched the sky with binoculars. "After about five minutes I saw the object, a rectangular shape about five miles away at an height of 6,000 feet, and Northeast of the tower" he told the Enquirer. "The right end was blue, the left end was blue and in the middle was a flashing red light".

"The object we saw was see-sawing up and down and moving towards the North".

Pirouzi notified the Air Force and Gen. Abdullah Yousefi, senior officer on duty responded by phone. Said Pirouzi "He went out on the porch of his house and on the telephone to me said "Yes, I can see something. It isn't a star", so he ordered one of the phantom jets to stand by to scramble". The second jet was sent up later, when the first ran low on gas after it's chase. Gen. Azarbarzin said whenever the plane got within 15 miles or so of the UFO most of the electric and electronic systems were suddenly and mysteriously knocked out-until they moved away. "That happened to three different planes" he noted. "We had two fighters - that happened to both of them - and one airliner which was flying in the area at the same time".

"This technology they (the UFO) were using was something we haven't had before, and we don't have it. It was extremely strange and unexplainable". The General described the UFO as being unlike any known aircraft. He said "It was quite circular and just like a saucer, and the shape of the cockpit was a ball - Half a ball". Pirouzi, in direct contact with the jet pilots said he told the first one up to get close to the object, and the pilot reported "I'm going to MACH 2 -(about 14,00 miles an hour)- and I'm 50 miles behind the object. I can't catch him. I'ts no use to follow any more. I can't catch him". From that time on, Pirouzi said, the phantom and it's replacement were chasing the object all over the place, over the Iranian sky to the North and West, with the UFO showing fantastic speed and seeming to disappear and appear.

Pirouzi said the second phantom pilot reported that the UFO had ejected a luminous object at him, and that he was flying back. Then the radio went dead as the phantom jet reached the control tower and screamed past - a dark rectangular object appearing to be on top of it. Radio communication with the plane was later established.

After several more attempts by the second phantom to approach the UFO - with his electrical systems going out every time - the pilot was ordered to return to base. It was then 4 AM.

Although the object emitted by the UFO was seen to descend to the ground, no trace was ever found of it afterwards. When the second phantom left the area, the UFO started to climb higher and higher - until it eventually disappeared into the sky.

But, incredible as these events were, there was to be a bizarre sequel.

Some 45 minutes after the UFO left the Iranian sky, a BOEING 707 jet of the TAP airline leaving Lisbon, Portugal - nearly 3,200 miles from Terhan - almost crashed into a brightly lit object that shot across its course.

The NATIONAL ENQUIRER reported this hair raising encounter with a UFO in its issue of November 30th, 1976.

And the object over Lisbon, as described by the Pilots and crew of the 707 closely corresponds with descriptions of the UFO seen over Terhan earlier that night.

The NATIONAL ENQUIRER article concerning the 707 mentioned above.

707 Passenger Jet on Collision Course with a Dazzling UFO

The dazzling UFO and the Boeing 707 jetliner carrying 101 passengers raced toward each other on a collision course. "Were going to crash" thought copilot Armindo Pinto as he wrenched the plane into a steep bank. Startled by the violent maneuver, Capt. Eloy Weigert, who was checking his instruments looked up in time to see the UFO dead ahead. It was so close it seemed to fill three-quarters of the cockpit windshield. Spitting out what appeared to be fire and sparks in bursts, it shot past the Portugese airliner.

Observed by two other astonished crewmen and an air traffic controller on the ground, the extraordinary encounter occurred shortly after TAP flight 241 took off the ground from Lisbon Airport at 2.10 a.m. local time on September 19th bound for Africa. TAP is government-run airline. In their seats in the cockpit were Capt. Weigert, 52, with 22,000 hours of flying time Co-pilot Pinto 34; flight engineer Gilberto Sarmento, 48; and Jose Pinto, 31 copilot for a second crew that would take over the plane in Kinshasa, Zaire. He was the first to spot the UFO.

We were climbing to 4,000 feet, I was sitting behind the captain on the left hand side of the flight deck. And just before we reached 4,000ft I saw through the first officers window on the right hand side, two very bright spots of light in the direction of 2 o'clock. One looked like a star. The other I wasn't sure about. I glanced at the altimeter. Then looked out again for the strange light. It had moved from 2 o'clock to 1 o'clock in about a second. It was going very fast from right to left across our track. I could see two streamers of fire shooting out from behind, like fuel burning. I called out to co-pilot Armindo - Be careful. There's another aircraft at the same level on your right side. Armindo Pinto said the object was no more than 330 yards away I swung the aircraft into a steep bank to avoid a collision. Said Captain Weigert; I looked up and saw the object at the front of the aircraft obscuring about three-quarters of the cockpit windshield. The UFO had five, six or seven bright lights, like windows close together. As we turned, it passed by us on the left-hand side shooting out flashes of orange colour. In 32 years of flying I've never seen anything like it. This certainly wasn't a military aircraft or a meteor.

1973 - UFO FLAP IN THE NORTH

by J. Minto

During 1973, there were literally hundred's of UFO reports from the North East of England. The Flap started spectacularly when several people claimed to find scorch marks on the ground near Richmond, they also said they heard a loud bang. After this sightings and others similar, the local newspapers soon came out with the headlines, "Is the THING coming North? and "The Flying saucers that saved the world", which sounded like good old science fiction to most people. But then more 'conventional' reports arrived from around the area- rugby shaped objects, saucer shaped objects, in fact two young people spotted a saucer shaped object over Wallsend, but previously, a school trip to go badger spotting had not only seen the THING but actually photographed it, the photo looked remarkably like a mock moon, but a local expert came forward to say that this was impossible, and to this day the photograph remains unidentified.

A local astronomer claimed to spot an object - golden and star-like at about 20,000 feet, a young couple spotted a huge grey cigar shaped object over Errington Woods, and five people spotted a cigar shaped object crossing the moon - it was all very puzzling, but the reports did not stop they continued throughout the summer but the most peculiar story came from a young couple driving their car, when they spotted a disc shaped object land in a nearby field it quickly rose but the couple followed it before it vanished. Although there were plenty of sightings, there was no pattern, and a local team was formed to try to find a pattern. The sightings were never ending "More UFOs seen in the North, it was now a nightly occurrence to see a saucer sighting on the local papers. All sorts of theories were advanced including the suggestion that Earth had a double- home of flying saucers.and still the sightings continued to pour in... until the day there were no sightings, and then the press started to ask "Where have all the UFO's gone?, but who knows? perhaps they have finished watching the North? But apparently not.... as already in 1977 there have been reports of UFO's.

UFO NEWS FROM WARMINSTER AREA

Report by Phyllis Palmer of Manifestations on Cradle Hill on the night of 10th April 1977.

A small party of UFO spotters had assembled at the top of Cradle Hill around the now famous white gates, the time being about 10pm. At intervals small starlike objects were seen to wheel around the sky heading in a north-westerly direction. The night was crisp and clear and very cold - most of the people were nearly frozen including myself, husband and author of books on the UFO phenomena Mr. Arthur Shuttlewood. After a couple of hours people began to leave. A young man from London set up his Infra red camera on a tripod and waited hopefully with us. Here, I should mention that I am a super sensitive person and a Healer. I have psychic vision, we were all laughing and joking in an attempt to keep ourselves warm. All of a sudden, I saw a man in a kind of white space suit walk up the hill from the direction of the Army Barracks down below. He wore a tightfitting helmet, the type one sees skin divers wearing - it was in one piece. He wore brilliant white Wellington type boots on his feet. He advanced up to the opposite side of the gates and looked across at us, but, even though eight people were watching in that direction, it seems that I was the only person to see him. He bent down, then straightened, then walked into the field opposite, although the field was wired off, he just walked through it with no apparent difficulty. I said nothing, and continued to watch with the others. We watched the skies and more people left. Then, all of a sudden as I leaned against the gate leading up to the copse, I saw a large cloud-like manifestation, I told Arthur and he and the others looked over the gate. My hands and body which had been numb with cold became hot and I asked them all to hold my hands to feel the intense heat. All were amazed. Then, before my eyes, half way up the hill, I saw the "Cloud" take on a beehive like shape. It became clearer and assumed the shape of an oval disc, still having a cloud effect surrounding it. I was astounded and my heart started to pound and my pulse raced. A man, again dressed as a aforementioned, came out of the craft, holding what appeared to be some instrument resembling a bathroom wall heater - it was oblong with a row of grill -ls. Another man emerged from the craft, but I failed to see the method of exit, although a row of windows, about six were visible from where I stood. The first one pointed to the area of the Clubhouse on the other hill. They moved about for a few minutes then walked in the direction that the first man had taken across the fields on the other side of the road. The young photographer kept his camera pointing in the direction I had indicated. Two young local girls, two lads and Arthur leapt over the gate and walked up the road in the direction of the craft. One of the lads, on his return said that his coat had been tugged as he went through the area. All of them said that at that particular spot they felt the temperature of the atmosphere rise and experienced warmth although they had seen nothing. My husband who at that time was on the other road said he heard a quiet high pitched whirring sound just before I saw the cloud. The craft then disappeared, and I once more felt very cold. I asked those present to feel my hands once more to confirm this, they all did.

A quarter of an hour later I again felt very hot, and, as I looked up at the Copse I saw the same clouds and the emergence of a similar type of craft, but this time the craft seemed to have a lovely azure blue halo around it. It was beautiful. This craft was higher up the field, close to the line of trees, but I had clear vision from where I stood. Once again it assumed a solid appearance, and another two men emerged. They walked in different directions - one due East and one due West. Then I saw what appeared to be a white line between them, as though they were in the process of measuring something with a tape measure. They looked about them for some time, and it was then that the young photographer zoomed his lens in the direction of the copse. One of them started to walk down the field towards us, and my heart began to pound again, although I was not afraid at that time. He came halfway down the field, looked at us, then turned in the direction that the previous men had taken, to the West. Then He lifted his left hand and a short sharp beam of light was emitted from his hand although I saw no torch of any kind. He walked on over the roadway and into the field opposite. I went very cold again and the craft and its occupants disappeared from my vision. I just could not believe my eye.

We continued to look up at the sky and joked once more as we drank tea and ate our sandwiches. Then, once more I became hot again, and saw a man on the road beckoning my way on to the road alone. As I approached the man, slowly he appeared to retreat, still beckoning me to follow him up the dark road. I again walked forward, and noticed that he had very high cheek bones and rather Oriental eyes. He wore gauntlet type gloves. He also wore the same one piece suit as the others. At this time a slight panic overcame me, and I ran back to the gates and joined the others.

This account will probably seem less than credible to others, but in the pursuit of Truth into the Research of the UFO enigma I feel it my duty to place on record a faithful account of what I witnessed at the top of Cradle Hill on that eventful Easter Morning.

On behalf of all of us at UFO INFO thank you Phyllis for your very exacting report. Unknown to you most of us in UFO INFO have experienced the variations in temperature on Cradle Hill and at the moment there are several people working on lines of research to try and find out what it is that is causing it. When we experienced the heat changes, we also located a small spot in the copse about 1 foot square that had an extremely large temperature change, although we did not see anything it left us very puzzled. Thank you once again.

TIME 2.15 A.M.

LOCATION: CRADLE HILL, WARMINSTER

POSITION: COPSE NO.1.

WEATHER: CLEAR SKY, MILD TO COLD, SLIGHT BREEZE.

REPORTER: Syd Hutchinson.

In the direction of Copse No.2. a bright orange light, approximately 4 times the size of a star, was seen travelling East to West at about the speed of a conventional aircraft. Its elevation was about 20°, distance unknown but appeared to be between 2-10 miles.

As it came into line with copse No.2. it stopped in mid-air for about 20 secs. No deceleration was noticed. It then gradually accelerated to its former speed, but as it started moving, a tiny bluish white light was seen to leave it and fall slowly to Earth, taking about 10 seconds to do so. Its point of touchdown was obscured by the copse.

The first light, now at its former speed, quickly dimmed and then vanished about 30° to the left of the copse, maintaining a horizontal trajectory.

Nine people were present including Syd and his sister Sandra.

On returning to the double gate, it was found four other people observed the same UFO.

We would like to thank Miss Bridget Chivers for the following sightings, she and a group of sky watchers, are among the most dedicated people in this type of research. She is one of the most regular skywatchers and we are pleased to be able to print her reports.

Sunday May 22nd. 1977 Cradle Hill 10.14pm.

Satellite type object travelled south to north at a regular speed until it was just below the plough, where it stopped. It stayed in this position for approx 4mins and then disappeared. While the object was stationary there appeared to be a solid oval shape behind the light. The object disappeared it did not fade from sight.

10.20pm. A second satellite type light which appeared to show an unacceptably high colour variation. It was travelling East to West and disappeared at the top of its arc.

Clear Night No Cloud. Eight skywatchers dwindling to three latter.
